

From Past to Present

BIG Question

How can we preserve our traditions?

Share What You Know

- 1 Talk about traditions in your home.
- 2 Share a song, story, or recipe that you learned from someone in your family.
- 3 Draw a picture that shows something about your traditions and culture.

Do It!

We sing old songs together.

Build Background: Watch a video about culture and traditions.

 NGReach.com

How can we preserve our traditions?

Language Frames

- How do _____ ?
- Why do _____ ?
- It's _____ .
- We hear/see/do different _____ .

Ask for and Give Information

Listen to the dialogue between Jesse and Inez.

Then use Language Frames with a partner. Ask for and give information about something that you do.

Dialogue

Tradition

Do you know the word tradition in your language? Write it above!

Definition:

the handing down of information, beliefs, or customs from one generation to another

Sentence:

Classify Details

When you classify details, you group together details that are alike in some way.

Look at the pictures of the celebration that Inez went to.

Map and Talk

You can use a web to classify details about something, such as the fair. Here's how you make one.

The topic of the web goes in the center. The name of each category, or group, goes in a small oval. The details go at the ends of the lines.

Details Web

Talk Together

Tell a partner what you see, hear, smell, and taste at a fair or other celebration. Your partner makes a details web.

Thinking Map: Details Web

At the Festival

Make a details web about things at the festival.

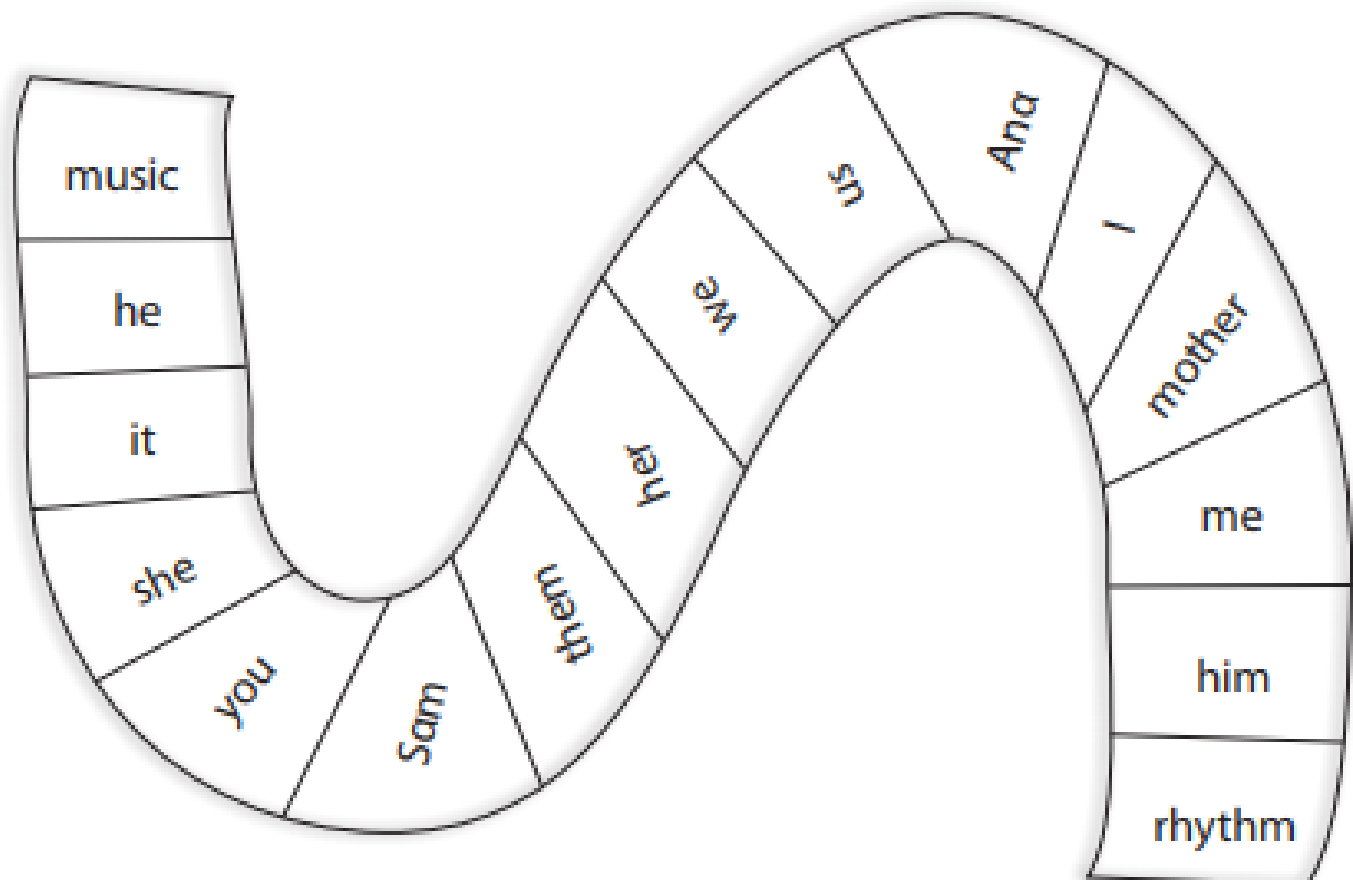

Grammar: Object Pronouns

Winning with Pronouns

Grammar Rules Object Pronouns

Use object pronouns in the predicate of a sentence. The object pronouns are me, you, him, her, it, us, you, and them.

1. Play with a partner. Place your markers on music.
2. Toss a coin. Move one space for heads. Move two spaces for tails.
3. If you land on an object pronoun, say it in a sentence.

Tell a partner about something you saw or watched. Use object pronouns.